MCFARLANE AVIATION PRODUCTS PARTNERS WITH VANCE STREET CAPITAL

[Baldwin City, Kansas, October 21, 2021] – McFarlane Aviation Products, a diversified aerospace manufacturer and supplier, announced its partnership with Vance Street Capital LLC today. A Los Angeles-based private equity firm, Vance Street invests in middle-market businesses as a strategy for growth. Vance Street’s mission is to partner with entrepreneurial management teams to help scale their business, drive growth, and further enhance the solutions they are providing their customers.

“We are excited to team with Vance Street and accelerate our aviation products growth. We will continue to build upon the high-quality product lines that we have developed over the past 50 years while we stay true to our customers and the McFarlane way,” said Dave McFarlane, founder of McFarlane Aviation.

“Vance Street is honored to have the opportunity to partner with an industry-leading aerospace parts manufacturer and supplier like McFarlane. For more than 50 years, McFarlane has worked towards keeping General Aviation affordable and safe. They have strengthened their relationships with OEMs and grown their overall product offerings for distribution, all while maintaining their core business model of General Aviation PMA part manufacturing. With Vance Street’s additional support and capital, McFarlane will be able to invest further into their business. They will be able to expand upon their extensive product lines and design portfolios, all while continuing to provide best-in-class service to their customers,” added Nicholas Janneck, Principal at Vance Street.

McFarlane looks forward to the increased opportunities this partnership will provide. McFarlane plans to continue growing and supporting the aviation community with high-quality aircraft parts, products, and solutions. McFarlane currently offers over 30,000 parts to the general aviation marketplace. To see their newest products, visit www.mcfarlaneaviation.com or call 866.920.2741
